

5 points

True or False: Over 85,000 chemicals are registered for use in the U.S.

Answer = TRUE

They are contained in more than a half-million products

5 points

True or False: There has been little to no government regulation of the chemicals used in cleaning products in the U.S.

Answer = TRUE

10 points

What is the most toxic substance most people have in their homes?

- a) Johnny Walker Red
- b) Drain cleaner
- c) Spent batteries
- d) Paint thinner

Answer = B

None of these items should be disposed of in the regular garbage (assumes the whiskey would be consumed)

5 points

Which ending to the statement below is false: Cleaning products containing ingredients that include 'phenol', 'glycol' or end in '-ene' _____.

- a) Can be very dangerous
- b) Do a superior job when compared to natural cleaners
- c) Are commonly found in the average household
- d) Should be avoided

Answer = B

5 points

Many cleaners leave a toxic residue that you and your children can pick up with surface-to-skin contact.

Answer = TRUE

5 points

True or False: Repeated exposure to environmental toxins in common household cleaners, even in very small amounts, has a cumulative and detrimental effect on your health.

Answer = TRUE

5 points

True or False: Chlorine bleach is the most common cleaner accidentally swallowed by children.

Answer = TRUE

5 points

Spray cleaners are safe if you wear gloves and a facemask.

Answer = FALSE

Exposure still occurs through skin contact